

Effective 5/12/2015

63C-14-301 Commission duties.

- (1) Until November 30, 2019, the commission shall:
  - (a) study and assess:
    - (i) the financial stability of the federal government;
    - (ii) the level of dependency that the state and local governments have on the receipt of federal funds;
    - (iii) the risk that the state and local governments in the state will experience a reduction in the amount or value of federal funds they receive, in both the near and distant future;
    - (iv) the likely and potential impact on the state and its citizens from a reduction in the amount or value of federal funds received by the state and by local governments in the state, in both the near and distant future; and
    - (v) the likely and potential national impact from a reduction in the amount or value of federal funds paid to the states, in both the near and distant future; and
  - (b) make recommendations to the governor and Legislature on methods to:
    - (i) avoid or minimize the risk of a reduction in the amount or value of federal funds by the state and by local governments in the state;
    - (ii) reduce the dependency of the state and of local governments in the state on federal funds; and
    - (iii) prepare for and respond to a reduction in the amount or value of federal funds by the state and by local governments in the state.
- (2) After November 30, 2019, the commission shall study, assess, and provide recommendations on any federal issue that the governor, the Legislature through a joint resolution of the Legislature, or the Legislative Management Committee directs the commission to study, assess, and make recommendations on.
- (3) On or before November 30 of each year, the commission shall report to the Government Operations Interim Committee of the Legislature on the commission's findings and recommendations.
